David's birthday was on a snowy day in December. He got lots of presents from his family and friends. His father and mother gave him a red box with a storybook in it. His mother said, "There are a lot of funny stories in it. It's good for you." Mike, David's sister gave him a round box. "It was a birthday cake", he thought, but it was a basketball. David likes playing basketball. David's brother gave him a big yellow box. David opened it and there was another box in it. The box was green. He opened the small box and saw the third box. This one was blue. There was a short letter in it, "Go to your bedroom, you can see three boxes there, a black one, a grey one and a white one, your birthday present is in one of them." David ran to his bedroom and found them on the bed. The black one is bigger than the grey one, and the white one is the smallest. He opened the grey box but found nothing in it. Then he opened the biggest one. He was very glad to see a model plane in it.
